Statement by N. J. Palzer, Esq., in reference to his interview with Mr. William Shedwick.

MR. PALZER: Mr. William Shedwick remembers fishing with Mr. Stevens up to September 14, but does not remember seeing him on the 14th. He remembers particularly fishing with Mr. Stevens on Saturday afternoon, September 16, 1922, from about halfpast one to quarter past two; was only about ten feet away from Mr. Stevens during this time. About two o'clock someone delivered a telegram or note to Mr. Stevens, who was on the beach.
A few minutes later Mr. Stevens, addressing Mr. Shedwick, said that he was going in.

Later in the afternoon, at about three- o'clock Eastern Standard Time, Mr. Shedwick met Mr. Stevens at the railroad station. Mr. Stevens told him that his brother-in-law had died. Mr. Shedwick fixes the time
